Additional Information:

Defendant states on record that the SOF entered today is correct. FPD states truth of either SOF does not need to factor into the court's acceptance of his plea. Court addresses defendant directly. US states a trial exhibit from FB corroborates defendant's current statement. FPD restates that statements made at each plea hearing are more appropriately addressed on cross-examination, objects to court asking for reason for different statements for reasons stated on the record. Defendant states that the November SOF was because he was advised by first lawyer, Allegra Black, to say that - statement made on advice of counsel. Court asks defendant if today's SOF is true and correct, defendant states it is. Court confirms with both counsel that this is the correct SOF.
